About us

Overview

Headquartered in Hangzhou, with a state-of-the-art production facility in Wuyi, Zhejiang, Solamex Houseware Co., Ltd. has solidified its position as a leading exporter in the nonstick aluminum cookware and water bottle industry. Through advanced manufacturing processes—including die-casting, forging, and pressing, Solamex delivers high-quality products that meet the needs of global markets.

Company History:

Founded by Boris Lu in 2006, Solamex has accumulated over 18 years of industry expertise, establishing a strong reputation for excellence in design and manufacturing. Over the years, the company has expanded its reach from well-known European supermarkets and discount stores to remote markets in the Middle East and beyond.

Transformation & Innovation:

Solamex is currently undergoing an exciting transformation, evolving from a traditional product supplier to a full-service provider, offering tailored solutions and premium services to meet the diverse needs of our clients. Our in-house laboratory and expertise in testing processes—such as bottom cavity inspections and ceramic scratching tests—ensure that we consistently meet the rigorous standards of our customers. With a highly efficient and experienced quality control team, we prioritize both exceptional product quality and on-time delivery.

Why choose us?

Research & Development:

Solamex boasts a talented design team skilled in 3D prototyping, 2D drawing outputs, animation rendering, and illustration design. Our advanced R&D capabilities allow us to turn creative concepts into tangible, market-ready products.

Industry Experience:

With a proven track record of servicing major retailers like LIDL, Aldi, Rewe, E.Leclerc, Migros, and Sears & Kmart since 2006, Solamex has earned the trust of some of the world's largest retailers. We have invested millions of dollars into rigorous testing processes, ensuring we deliver products that meet the highest standards.

Quality Assurance:

Solamex is fully compliant with key international standards, including EN12983, EN12875, EN13834, IS 617, IS 9730, and many more. Our collaboration with renowned labs such as LGA, TUV Rheinland, TUV Sud, SGS, ITS, and Eurofins further strengthens our commitment to delivering products that meet the highest safety and quality benchmarks. Our facilities have also passed audits from leading retailers such as LIDL, Aldi, and TUV Rheinland.

Competitive Pricing:

At Solamex, we are committed to providing superior quality at affordable prices. By streamlining our supply chain and optimizing production processes, we have successfully minimized costs while maintaining exceptional standards.

Customer-Focused Services:

Our dedicated sales team is committed to providing exceptional service to all our clients, including VIP customers. Each order receives personalized attention and is processed with precision using our CRM and ERP systems to ensure timely and efficient fulfillment. Whatever challenges arise, Solamex is always there to support you, standing behind every product we deliver.

Production Capacity:

Solamex's impressive production capacity includes the ability to manufacture 1,000,000 units of cookware and 500,000 units of water bottles per month. Our expansive warehouse facilities can accommodate over 100 full container loads (HQ), ensuring we meet the demands of large-scale orders.
